

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Sharon Anderson has dedicated the past 24 years to serving the citizens of South Dakota as an employee of the Department of Transportation (DOT); and,

Whereas, Sharon began her career with the DOT in 1986 working in various offices until she left for the Department of Health in 1989; and,

Whereas, Sharon's absence from the DOT was short as she returned to the Office of Aeronautics after 4 months with the condition she remain for at least 5 years – which she more than fulfilled; and,

Whereas, Sharon exhibited thoroughness and a strong attention to detail in her position along with making sure the Aeronautics and Railroad Commissions always had snacks during their meetings; and,

Whereas, Sharon's deep care and involvement with her family are apparent to those around her, and her loyalty, dedication, and friendship will not be forgotten by the Department of Transportation and many others who have worked with her over the years; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of her retirement from the Department of Transportation:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 6, 2010, as in South Dakota, and I join her family and her friends in the Department of Transportation and across the state in offering best wishes for an enjoyable retirement.

SHARON ANDERSON DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirtieth Day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Ten.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State